Summary of Program Presentations & Publications

Employment Intervention Demonstration Program June 1, 1995 - December 31, 2001

This report summarizes the activities of the eight Employment Intervention Demonstration Program (EIDP) sites and Coordinating Center with regard to academic presentations and publications, providing technical assistance and consultation, organizing conferences, and the development of training curricula and technical materials from June 1, 1995 through December 31, 2001.

Over the past six years, EIDP project staff have presented information regarding the overall program, service models and instrumentation, vocational rehabilitation, employment outcomes, and mental health services for people with mental illness at a variety of local, state, national, international, federal, and professional meetings, seminars and conferences. To date, more than 350 academic research papers, symposia, roundtable and panel discussions, poster sessions, keynote and plenary addresses, research forums, grand rounds, training seminars and institutes, workshops, and video and/or teleconferences have been completed by EIDP staff. EIDP demonstration sites and the Coordinating Center have published articles in refereed journals, authored book chapters, developed curricula, training, and technical manuals, assisted in the production of a special EIDP issue of the Community Support Network News, and convened regional, state and national conferences regarding vocational rehabilitation and employment.

Conference Coordination

Hand in Hand: It's Worth the Investment - A National Summit on Best Practices for Mental Health in the Workplace, October 9, 2001.

1. Staff from the Coordinating Center have been invited to join the national planning committee for this national event. Drs. Cook and Razzano have participated on conference calls, assisted in the development of the summit agenda, and provided information regarding speakers for plenary addresses and breakout sessions.

Evidence-Based Practices in Vocational Rehabilitation, Best Practices Conference, June 2001.

2. Dr. Cook organized the session, "Evidence-Based Practices in Vocational Rehabilitation," part of the New York State Office of Mental Health's "Best Practices Conference" in Brooklyn, NY.

International Association of Psychosocial Rehabilitation Services, May 2001.

3. Drs. Cook and Razzano were invited to participate in the Vocational Mini-Conference at the Annual Meeting of IAPSRs as institute and workshop presenters, as well as vocational mini-conference discussion group facilitators.

Technical Assistance & Consultation

Cook, J.A. (2001, December). Dr. Cook consulted with the US General Accounting Office (GAO) on studies regarding the efficacy of employer incentives (e.g., tax credits, assistive technology grants) in promoting the hiring and retention of individuals with disabilities.

Cook, J.A. (2001, December). Dr. Cook consulted with the Stark County Board of Health in Canton, Ohio, regarding strategies to redesign their existing vocational rehabilitation service delivery system for people with mental illness.

Cook, J.A. (2001, November). Dr. Cook was invited to provide expert consultation and technical assistance to the Design and Evaluation Committee of the Social Security Administration's Ticket-to-Work and Work Incentive Advisory Panel, Washington, D.C.

Cook, J.A. (2001, November). Dr. Cook consulted with the Lorraine County Board of Mental Health in the State of Ohio regarding strategies for redesigning county-funded vocational services for people with severe mental illness.

Razzano, L.A. (2001, September). Dr. Razzano provided consultation to an American Psychological Association (APA) Workgroup on Employment regarding outcome measurement in employment and vocational rehabilitation research, including information regarding characteristics of competitive employment and features of the Ticket-to-Work and Work Incentives Improvement Act (TWWIIA).

Cook, J.A. (2001, August). Dr. Cook prepared and presented a report detailing the final results of multivariate analyses regarding four core EIDP research questions at a meeting convened by Center for Mental Health Services project officers in Rockville, MD.

Burke, J.K. (2001, July). Ms. Burke provided technical assistance to the Social Security Administration's Ticket-to-Work and Work Incentives Improvement Act (TWWIIA) Advisory Panel as part of the Evaluation Committee Expert Roundtable Meeting and Webcast regarding design and implementation of the "Adequacy of Incentives Study," as well as on the overall TWWIIA evaluation plan.

Cook, J.A. (2001, July). The Coordinating Center provided materials on vocational rehabilitation evidence based practices for distribution at a statewide supported employment conference sponsored by the Maryland Dept of Health and Mental Hygiene. More than 200 copies of the EIDP research-based principles of supported employment, as well as other EIDP materials, were provided to the conference organizers for distribution to attendees.

Cook, J.A. (2001, July). Dr. Cook consulted with IAPSRs regarding methodological issues involved in the Social Security Administration's planned evaluation of the $2-for-$1 provision of the Ticket-to-Work and Work Incentives Improvement Act. In addition, Dr. Cook provided a detailed literature review of the research regarding "Induced Entry" for disability benefit systems.

Cook, J.A. (2001, July). Dr. Cook consulted with U.S. Health and Human Services, Office of Inspector General, Evaluation and Inspection, regarding multisite study design, implementation, and evaluation for a future study under development at the Center for Mental Health Services in conjunction with four state community mental health services systems.

Cook, J.A. (2001, July). Dr. Cook consulted with the National Center for Children in Poverty, School of Public Health, Columbia University on promising vocational models for women TANF recipients, as well as provided consultation to NAMI's Director of Policy and Governmental Affairs on Mental Health services funding in President Bush's proposed federal budget cutbacks.

Cook, J.A. (2001, June). The Coordinating Center conducted a two-day session regarding Concept Mapping with representatives of the Illinois Dept of Human Services, Office of Mental Health (DHS-OMH) to identify essential service provider competencies of the Assertive Community Treatment model, including competencies for providing vocational rehabilitation services on ACT teams. Session included ACT line staff, supervisors, consumers, family members, and consumer-providers. In addition, the Coordinating Center consulted with DHS-OMH administrators regarding constructing a tier-based system of care for use in monitoring performance of provider agencies and client outcomes in the Chicago Metro region of Illinois. Initial plans for this tier-based system include a psychosocial rehabilitation tier which includes supported and transitional employment services, as well as supported education services.

Cook, J.A. (2001, June). In June, Dr. Cook provided staff from the Presidential Task Force On Employment of Adults With Disabilities information, resources, and technical assistance regarding vocational rehabilitation service delivery models appropriate for individuals affected by the Olmsted Act.

Cook, J.A. (2001, April). Consulted with the New York State Office of Mental Health regarding provisions of the Ticket-to-Work and Work Incentives Improvement Act (TWWIA) and strategies to prepare NY State OMH to collaborate with agencies with established track records serving people with mental illness to successfully be certified as Employment Networks (TWWIA providers) capable of providing services to clients with TWWIA vouchers.

Cook, J.A. (2001, March). Provided one-day consultations with two county mental health boards in Ohio (i.e., Columbiana and Stark counties) regarding enhancing employment services for people with disabilities.

Cook, J.A. (2001, February). Provided technical assistance to a staff member of the General Accounting Office (GAO) interested in information regarding employment interventions for people with psychiatric disabilities, as well as information and address for the EIDP Website, www.psych.uic.edu/EIDP.

Cook, J.A. (2001, February). Developed and submitted written commentary to the Social Security Administration regarding the proposed rules for the Ticket-to-Work and Work Incentives Improvement Act (TWWIA).

Cook, J.A. (2001, February). Provided technical assistance to the Acting Deputy Assistant Secretary for the new federal Office of Disability Employment Policy regarding how to better integrate services for people with psychiatric disabilities into vocational programs sponsored by the Department of Labor (DOL), including but not limited to One-Stops, Youth Opportunity Grants, etc. This consultation also included discussion of preliminary findings from the EIDP and the ways in which these results could influence DOL policies and guidelines.

Cook, J.A. (2001, January). Provided consultation and technical assistance to staff at local mental health and vocational rehabilitation centers in Wood County, OH regarding strategies to more fully integrate vocational services into their existing programming.

Cook, J.A. (2000, December). In the present reporting quarter, staff from the Coordinating Center provided technical assistance to several organizations. During December 2000, Dr. Cook provided consultation to the National Association of State Medicaid Directors (NASMD) regarding a session concerning use of Medicaid dollars to enhance mental health and vocational rehabilitation for NASMD's annual conference to be held in the Washington, DC area. Dr. Cook also provided written materials and technical assistance to the National Association of State Mental Health Advisory and Planning Councils regarding evidence-based vocational rehabilitation models and services for people with psychiatric disabilities.
